Why is MPF important to you?

- The Mandatory Provident Fund (MPF) System aims at assisting the working population of Hong Kong to accumulate retirement savings by making regular contributions. Employees (full time or part-time) and self-employed persons aged 18 to 64, except the exempt persons, are required to participate in an MPF Scheme. To enrol in China Life MPF Master Trust Scheme, please submit the completed application form to us. The application form can be downloaded via

www.chinalife.com.hk/products/mpf/download-centre

- To facilitate your retirement planning, you may use MPFA's Retirement Planning Calculator to calculate:

- your retirement needs;
- your projected MPF and other retirement savings upon your retirement; and
- how much you need to save to meet your retirement needs.

<https://bit.ly/3o1qU9C>

- If you are an employer, you need to know your MPF obligations, including enrolling new employees, making contributions and reporting terminated employees. If you have any questions relating to your MPF obligations as an employer, please contact us. To become a participating employer of China Life MPF Master Trust Scheme, please submit the completed application form to us. The application form can be downloaded via

www.chinalife.com.hk/products/mpf/download-centre

Your MPF contributions

- If you are an employee (full time or part-time), both you and your employer are required to make regular MPF contributions for you, based on your "relevant income" as follows:

Monthly Relevant Income	Mandatory Contribution Amount
	Employer's Contributions	Employee's Contributions
Less than $7,100	Relevant income x 5%	Not required
$7,100 - $30,000	Relevant income x 5%	Relevant income x 5%
More than $30,000	$1,500	$1,500

- "Relevant income" refers to wages, salaries, leave pay, fees, commissions, bonuses, gratuities, perquisites or allowances, expressed in monetary terms, paid or payable by an employer to an employee, but excludes severance payments or long service payments under the Employment Ordinance.
- All contributions are immediately vested in you, except for the MPF derived from the employer's contributions for offsetting severance payments or long service payments.
- If you are self-employed, you are required to make MPF contributions as follows:

Relevant Income		Self-employed Person's Contributions
Annual	Monthly Average
Less than $85,200	Less than $7,100	Not required
$85,200 - $360,000	$7,100 - $30,000	Relevant income x 5%
More than $360,000	More than $30,000	$$360,000 \times 5\% = $18,000$ per year OR $$30,000 \times 5\% = $1,500$ per month

- Whether you are an employee or self-employed, you may also consider making additional contributions (i.e. Voluntary Contributions (VC), Tax Deductible Voluntary Contributions (TVC) and Special Voluntary Contributions (SVC)) in light of your personal needs.

	Voluntary Contributions	Tax Deductible Voluntary Contributions*	Special Voluntary Contributions*

To help you make comparisons across different MPF funds and schemes, you may refer to the information on the MPF Fund Platform via the link: https://mfp.mpfa.org.hk/eng/mpp_index.jsp

What are the risks of your MPF investment?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the China Life MPF Master Trust Scheme Brochure – Risk Section for details of the risk factors to which the funds are exposed, which is available via the link:
www.chinalife.com.hk/products/mpf/download-centre

A risk class is assigned to each fund with reference to a seven-point risk classification scale based on the latest fund risk indicator of the fund. A fund in a higher risk class tends to show a greater volatility of return than a low-risk class fund. Information about the latest risk class of each fund is set out in the latest Fund Performance Review of China Life MPF Master Trust Scheme, which is available via the link:
www.chinalife.com.hk/products/mpf/download-centre

How to transfer your MPF?

If you are an employee, you may opt to transfer your MPF derived from employee mandatory contributions in your contribution account under current employment (Original Scheme) to any other MPF schemes of your choice (New Scheme) once a year¹. If your transfer involves selling your interests in a guarantee fund, please check with us the terms and conditions of this fund as failure to fulfil some qualifying conditions may cause the loss of guaranteed returns. Your contribution account under current employment may consist of different parts of MPF derived from different sources and subject to different transfer rules, as follows:

Parts of MPF in a contribution account (i.e. Types of contributions that the MPF are derived from)	Transfer rule	Type of account receiving the MPF
Contributions from current employment
Employer mandatory contributions	Not transferable	–
Employee mandatory contributions	Transferable once every calendar year ¹	Personal account
Employer voluntary contributions	Subject to the governing rules of the Original Scheme
Employee voluntary contributions
Contributions from former employment
Mandatory contributions transferred to the contribution account under current employment	Transferable at any time	Personal account or other contribution accounts ²
Voluntary contributions transferred to the contribution account under current employment	Subject to the governing rules of the Original Scheme

If you are a self-employed person or tax deductible voluntary contribution (TVC) account holder, you can transfer your MPF held in your MPF contribution account, personal account (for self-employed person) or TVC account (for TVC account holder) to any other MPF schemes of your choice at any time.

² Only applies to employees with two or more contribution accounts. If an employee is employed by more than one employer at the same time, he/she may have more than one contribution account.

How to manage your MPF when changing jobs?

- You should proactively manage the MPF accumulated during your previous employment in one of the following ways:

Method 1

Transfer the MPF to your "contribution account" opened under your new employment

Method 2

Transfer the MPF to your existing "personal account"

- If you do not have any personal accounts, and you are satisfied with the MPF scheme chosen by your former employer, you may consider retaining your MPF in a personal account under the scheme of your previous employment for investment.
- Forms for transferring MPF to China Life can be downloaded via this link:

www.chinalife.com.hk/products/mpf/download-centre

- If you have any questions relating to transfer of MPF, please contact us.

When should you adjust your MPF fund choices?

In general, it is a good practice to review your fund choices regularly and adjust your MPF fund choices as you think fit.

How to adjust your MPF fund choices?

- You may complete and submit a new investment instruction to us via form or online channels. If your new investment instructions involves selling your interests in a guarantee fund, please check with us the terms and conditions of this fund as failure to fulfil some qualifying conditions may cause the loss of guaranteed returns.
- Channels of submitting new investment instructions: China Life MPF Online Account (Website www.chinalife.com.hk, or Mobile apps China Life MPF), post, courier, fax.
- If China Life Trustees Limited receives an investment instruction on a dealing day by 4:00 p.m., the instruction will normally be processed on the same dealing day. For details, please refer to China Life MPF Master Trust Scheme Brochure - Investment Choice under Administrative Procedures Section which is available via the link:

www.chinalife.com.hk/products/mpf/download-centre

When can you withdraw your MPF?

- Once you reach the age of 65, you can choose one of the following ways to manage your MPF:
 1. Withdrawal by instalments
 2. Withdrawal in one lump sum
 3. Remaining in the MPF scheme for continuous investment
- By law you can withdraw your mandatory contributions of MPF early on the following six grounds:

- With ground of early retirement, you can choose to withdraw MPF in one lump-sum / by instalments, or retain all your MPF in your account.
- Withdrawal restrictions of voluntary contributions of MPF is subject to trust deed and governing rules.
- The law does not stipulate any deadlines for withdrawing MPF. You should consider your personal needs before making a withdrawal application. If you choose to retain all your MPF in your account, no application is required. Your MPF will continue to be invested in the fund(s) you have selected.
- Forms for withdrawal of MPF can be downloaded via the link:
